

Ten years in the making:

TIM'S STORY NOW IN PRINT

Tim Collom's color-rich canvases celebrate his love affair with the iconic beauty of California. His art has touched many of us in his hometown of Sacramento and beyond.

On a journey that began as a hobbyist painter in recovery, Tim has become a widely collected and beloved artist, deeply involved in the community.

This hardbound retrospective captures the first ten years of Tim's career. It is filled with rich, beautiful images, and tells his unlikely and inspiring story.
